GRONNA ATTACKS TREATY OF PEACE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The peace treaty was assalled in the senate today by Senator Grouns, Republican, North Dakota, as a violation of President Wilson's fourteen points and an arrangement likely to involve the United States in many wars. The league of nations, he characterized as an "unboly alliance" which would make this country "the packborse for the governments of Europe. Asia and Africa."

The ill-famed holy alliance of 1815, he asserted, was "as much superior both in spirit and form to this proposed covenant as the Master's sermon on the mount to the book of Talmud or the Koran."

mount to the book of Talmud or the Rotan."
Recalling that he was one of six nenators who voted against the declaration of war with Germany, the North Dakota sensitor said that some of those who tow wanted the league conducted themselves at that time like "demons of war." Speaking of the situation when President Wilson asked for the war declaration, he continued.
"No one was permitted to discuss it. The freedom of speech was not only limited but prohibited, and unless you are in a nowition and wiling to say so sayeth the king." you were demonstrated as pro-German and a traitor. Even before the war was declared it was treason to express an honest opinion: I felt that sufficient information was not given by the administration to warrant this sudden change."

The league of nations, the senator said, would set up a super-government while the treaty's Shantung provision would make the United States a party to "robbery and theft."

Server is shifted from tackle, where he played in the Georgetown, Indiana and Ohio State games. Colpitts, who showed his worth in the Buckeye game last week, is on the other side of Kelly. "Dad" Downing, an end of the Wildeat team of 1817, and at the same place so far this season, is at one tackle position. Downing weighs 180 pounds and should increase the strength of the Kentucky forwards. Murphree, who played better hall in the Ohio State game than in either of those proceeding, will be at the other tackle position.
